ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

My signature confirms that I have been informed of my right to privacy regarding my protected health information, under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). I understand that this information can and will be used to:

- Provide and coordinate my treatment among a number of healthcare providers who may be involved in that treatment directly and indirectly.
- Obtain payment from third-party payers for my healthcare service; and
- Conduct normal healthcare operations such as quality assessment and improvement activities.

I have been informed of my medical provider's Notice of Privacy Practices containing a more complete description of the use and disclosures of my protected health information.

I have been given the right to review and receive a copy of such Notice of Privacy Practices and that I may contact this office at the address above to obtain a current copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices.

I understand that I may request in writing that Hammond Dental Care restrict how my private information is used or disclosed to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations and I understand that Hammond Dental Care is not required to agree to my requested restrictions, but if Hammond Dental Care does agree then they are bound to abide by such restrictions.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information, therefore, please review carefully.

The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) is a federal program which requires that all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper or orally are kept properly confidential. The act gives you significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used, HIPAA, we have prepared this explanation of how we are required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may use and disclose your health information:

- Treatment means providing, coordinating or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. An example of this would include a physical examination.
- Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collections and utilization review. An example of this would be sending a bill for your visit to your insurance company for payment.
- Health care operations include the business aspects of running our practice, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis and customer service. An example of this would be an internal quality assessment review.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information by removing all references to individually identifiable information. We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives, or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing and we are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

You have the following rights with respect to you protected health information, which you can exercise by presenting a written request to the privacy officer:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to disclosures to family members, other relatives, close personal friends, or any other person identified by you. We are, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If we do agree to a restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of protected health information from us by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- The right to inspect, copy and amend your protected health information.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. This notice is effective as of January 1, 2010, and we are required to abide by the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of our notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. We will post and you may request a written copy of a revised Notice of Privacy Practices from the office. You have recourse if you feel that your privacy protections have been violated. You have the right to file a written complaint with our office, or with the Department of Health & Human Services Office, Office of Civil Rights, about violations of the provisions of this notice or the policies and procedures of our office. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Hammond Dental Care Financial Policy

- We will estimate your insurance co-payment at the time of your appointment and require that payment of that amount at the time services are rendered.
- It is expressly understood that dental insurance is a benefit to the patient and not the dental office. The patient or responsible party is responsible for all charges in the event the insurance company fails to pay for any reason.
- All charges are your responsibility from the date services are rendered. If after 30 days from filing your claim, we have not received payment, we will ask that you pay the remaining balance, and discuss your claim with your insurance carrier.
- All statements will go out on a monthly basis, regardless if all insurance claims have been paid or not. It is your responsibility to ensure that your insurance carrier has received a claim for all services rendered to you and paid to the provider in a timely manner.
- A late charge may be assessed if your minimum payment is not received by the due date. The amount of the late charge will be .05% of the past due amount.
- A finance charge is imposed on those charges not paid in full within 60 days of the date you were first billed. The finance charge is a minimum of 1.5% of the balance due per month.
- There will be a returned check fee of $25. Your account will also be subject to additional collection fees and finance charges.
- A $35 fee will be assessed for any "no show" appointment.
- I/We understand and agree to pay court costs, attorney fees and a 50% (fifty percent) collection fee on any outstanding balances over 30 days past due. I/We also agree to pay 2% interest per month on any outstanding balances over 30 days past due.

I ___________________________________, have read, understand and agree to the above policy. I understand that I am fully responsible for the fees due for services rendered, regardless of any insurance I may have.
